EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE COMMENTS

A. Chair – Chair Phil Hulsey reminded committee chairs to submit their committee reports in a timely manner if they want them included in the minutes. In addition, he gave a brief overview of the meeting with the Chancellor. Specifically, they discussed the “RIF” (Reduction in Force) policies, with the emphasis on being prepared with a logistical policy, not actual RIFS. There was discussion surrounding how information regarding adverse weather announcements gets relayed to the campus community. The administration may take a look and see if there is a more efficient way of communicating delays and closings to faculty, staff and students. Dr. Ballard also stressed his commitment to the Gail Jordan Scholarship Fund and getting it endowed. The new UNC President, Tom Ross, will be on campus early next year. The administration is in preparations for that now. Dr. Ross is more of a ‘grassroots’ kind of leader, therefore, the Chancellor has asked that the Staff Senate be prepared to help in the effort. Finally, Chair Hulsey stressed the importance of advanced planning for the Employee Appreciation Week. Encouraged the Rewards and Recognitions committee to please ask for assistance if they need help. In addition, Dr. Ballard said that the he may be help more with the budget for the Employee Appreciation Week….the Staff Senate will just need to get quotes in advance and ask.

B. Chair-Elect – Mary Susan Williams reminded all senators and alternates to ‘talk up’ the Gail Jordan Scholarship fund…it’s essentially for Staff. In addition, she encouraged everyone to take advantage of the discounted faculty/staff tickets for the last home football game of the season.

C. Secretary – Megan Ayers asked that all senators and alternates pick up their name badges and bring them to each meeting and to all staff events. In addition, she asked that senators and alternates verify their attendance on the Sharepoint site for accuracy.

D. Treasurer – Lisa Graepel reported that the Staff Senate spent $392 on name badges, so that leaves a balance of $3,608.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

A. Communications and Marketing – Mimosa Hines reported that their committee has coordinated the latest issue of Staff Senate Quarterly. In addition, there was one new Pirate Perk added this month. See the Staff Senate website for a complete list of Pirate Perks. Finally, the website has been updated to have past and current minutes, agenda, etc… and is a good resource for all senators and alternates.

B. Diversity – Marlene Anderson reported that the committee is working with Lakesha Alston in the Equity Office regarding the Work Force Survey. In addition, the committee is working to secure membership on the Diversity Council. The Diversity Committee will also be presenting their Diversity Report later in the meeting.

C. Human Resources – Kendra Davis reports that the HR committee continues to work with Human Resources on the Upward Feedback Surveys. At this point, they are changing directions slightly, therefore, they are not prepared to offer any resolution at this point, but will be working on getting something ready for a future meeting.

D. Rewards and Recognitions – Harold Coleman reported that their committee is getting started on Employee Appreciation Week planning. They are starting to make decisions

In addition, John Toller gave an update on the Leave Policy that was sent down from Office of State Personnel, which affects the amount of vacation leave time that is accrued based on how many years a worker has been employed. More information on this change is noted on the Human Resources website.

C. Resolution honoring Mr. Kevin Seitz – A motion, honoring the service of Kevin Seitz, former Vice Chancellor for Administration and Finance, was originally brought to the Executive Committee by Johnnie Eastwood.
