NEW BUSINESS

Interim Vice Chancellor of Administration and Finance, Rick Niswander, presented the State of North Carolina budget situation for 2011. He stated that there is a $3.7 billion dollar shortfall. The shortfall was due, in part, from a drop in tax revenues and a rise in expenses, like unemployment. Overall, there is a 20% shortfall. The shortfall could be spread over 2 years, in a best case scenario. The worst case scenario would be if we are required to absorb the entire 20% cut in one year. He also stated that we may not know the official cut amount until July.

Mr. Niswander stressed that we should not panic after hearing of the “Headline Cut” that is released by the press. He stated that about half of the Headline Cut would be what we will incur. Non-academic units have been absorbing the bulk of the cuts so far. This will no longer be the case. Academic units will have to incur some of the cuts for this year.

Senator Justin Boulmay asked if there had been any discussion of furloughs or permanent pay cuts. Mr. Niswander said that there was a very low likelihood that pay cuts would be implemented. There has not been any discussions yet of furloughs. Furloughs would require legislative action.

Senator Jay Clark asked if any proposals for implementing the cuts would be made available to the staff.

Mr. Niswander said that we should be able to cover the cuts without effecting personnel at this point. Each unit should be planning on how they would absorb their part of the cut.

Mr. Niswander also stated that a series of events with the Chancellor will be taking place for the next 2-3 months with the units.

Senator Jenny Gregory stated that there was a need to improve moral and asked if anything was being planned for employee incentives. A suggestion was made to expand the Treasured Pirate program. Karen Summerlin asked for suggestions for ways to expand the Treasured Pirate perks.

Senator Johnnie Eastwood asked if the budget would be completed on time this year. Mr. Niswander stated that there was no way of knowing how long it would take for the legislature to approve the budget but that more than likely, the budget would not be completed on time.

Senator Leigh Kadesh asked what the likelihood would be of closing any of the colleges? Mr. Niswander stated that due to political reasons, this would most likely not happen.

Senator Justin Boulmay asked if there would be an increase to the medical insurance premiums. Mr. Niswander stated that there may be an increase but was unsure.

Mr. Hulsey thanked Mr. Niswander for the budget update and invited Mr. Niswander to return when there are future updates.
